TUESDAY EVENING, DEC 7.

THEOWING THE HATCHET.—In the fourteenth century the situation of public executioner to the city of Florence became vacant, and, as it was a place of considerable emolument, there were three candidates. A day was appointed for public display of their several abilities. The for public display of their several abilities. The first candidate, with a knife, cleverly separated the head of the victim from his shoulder. He was outdone by the rapid stroke of the second, whose grittering broad sword struck terror into the hearts of the surrounding multitude. The third, and least promising, held in his hand a short hatchet, and, when the victim was extended with his head on the fatal block, approached him, and in a low whisper inquired if he was a short batchet, and, when the victim was a set with his head on the fatal block, approached him, and in a low whisper inquired if he was a swift runner, and if he could swim well. On being answered in the affirmative, he desired him to spring on his feet and cross the river him to spring on his feet and cross the river The executioner then put on a fierce look, awing his weapon around his head, but instead of making it descend on the devoted creature's neck, struck it with great force into the block! Shouts of execration rose from the crowd, and the trembling wretch, astonished at his wonderful escape, had nearly gained the opposite blink of the river before any steps were taken to pursue him. He had scarcely, however, gone ten yards on dry land, when the executioner, taking steady aim, threw his hatchet with such effect that the body continued running some time after that the body continued running some time after the head was off! From this rather improbable aceident the common phrase of throwing the Graham vs. the Washington City, Virginia Midlaud and Great Southern Railroad Company and others, I shall, in front of the Market Building, on Royal street, in the city of Alexandria, in the State of Virginia, at twelve (12) o'clock m..

ON MONDAY, THE TWENTIETH DAY

OF DECEMBER, 1880, sell at public auction to the highest bidder, the following described property:

The ENTIRE LINE OF BAILROAD known as the Washington City. Virginia Midland and as the Washington City, Virginia Midland and Great Southern Kailroad, lying between the city of Alexandria and the city of Danville, and from the town of Manassas, in the county of Prince William, on the aloresaid main line, to the town of Harrisonburg, in the county of Rockingham, together with all the branches thereof as they now exist, with all appurtenances and equipments, rights, privileges, franchises, properties, real and personal, and works to the said railroad and branches respectively belonging, or in any wise appertaining, including the roadway and tracks, rails and road bed, side tracks, bridges, viaduct, trestles, fences, stations, depots, machine shops and all other buildings and structures, docks and wherves, sand and gravel pits and de-posits of materials and all other things belong ing to, or used or designed to be used, for or in connection with the said railroad or branch railroads respectively, together with all locomotives and tenders, freight and passenger cars and all other cars and all other rolling stock or equip-ment whatseever, machinery, tools and all ma-terials for the use of said railroad or any of its branches and all other personal property there unto belonging, including all property and things whatsoever of any such nature or description as is above mentioned. The said line of railway and branches extends a total distance of 846 miles. The purchaser of said road and property above discribed will also be substituted to the rights and assume the responsibilities of said de. fendant company under a contract between said company and the Baltimore and Ohio Bailroad Company, dated on the 20th day of August, 1873, whereby the said Baltimore and which Railroad Company leases from said detendant company so much of the said road as lies between Strasburg and Harrisonburg and so much of said road as lies between said points will be sold subject to said lease.

The said purchaser will further take siad road and other property subject to the contracts made under orders of the Circuit Court of the city of Alexandria by the Receiver in said suit with the Charlottesville and Rapidan Railroad Com-pany and the Franklin and Pittsylvania Railroad company—and subject to all other contracts of the Receiver in regard to said property, whether made under order of the Court or not, and will assume all his liabilities thereunder. Should the purchaser not comply with the terms of sale, there will be a resale at his cost and risk.

Terms: The terms upon which said Commissioner shall sell said property as set forth in the said degree are—cash as to a sum of money equal to the principal and interest of all bonds secured by deeds of trust on said property or any part thereof, except those secured by the deed of trust of the defendant corporation, dated deed of trust of the detendant corporation, dated on the 1st of May, 1873, in which D. H. Miller. Robert Garrett and John W. Burke are trustees, and for a further amount of cash equal to the past due interest on the debt secured by that deed; as to a sum equal to the principal of the debt which has been heretofore ascertained to be due under said deed, on such credit as will meet the amount of said debt at maturity, taking care that as to such deterred payments provi eion be made for the purchaser to so pay inter-et on the purchase money in instalments that the interest so to be paid by him shall meet the coupons for interest yet to fall due on said principal—as to residue of the purchase money on a credit of one, two and three years, with interest from date of sale.

For the deferred payment, as aboved provided the Commissioner shall take the obligations of the purchaser and return them withhis report of sale, when the Court will direct how the payment o the same shall be secured by some satisfactory lien on the premises sold.

Of the cash, which it is herein provided shall Wharf and Yards foot of Queen st be required on the sale of said property, two hundred thousand dollars ($200 000 + shall be paid to the Commissioner within five days after said sale, and the residue skall be paid by the purchaser upon the confirmation of said sale in such manner as the Court in the decree of con-

such manner as the direct.
